ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE

The primary role of anti-ragging committee at the Avanthi Institute of Engineering & technology is to ensure that all students feel safe and secure on campus and are not subjected to any form of ragging. The committee is responsible for implementing the guidelines and measures prescribed by the UGC and other regulatory bodies to prevent ragging.

Some of the key roles and responsibilities of anti-ragging committee:

1. To create awareness among students about the consequences of ragging and the importance of maintaining a healthy and friendly campus environment.
2. To ensure that all students, faculty, and staff are aware of the anti ragging policies and procedures in place and to provide support and guidance to those who have been subjected to ragging.
3. To monitor the campus for any incidents of ragging and take immediate action to prevent it from escalating.
4. To investigate any complaints of ragging and take appropriate disciplinary action against the students found guilty.
5. To liaise with local law enforcement agencies and other relevant authorities to ensure the safety and security of students on the campus.
6. To maintain regular communication with students, faculty, and staff to understand their concerns and address any issues related to ragging.
7. The anti-ragging committee plays a crucial role in promoting safe and healthy campus, it is essential that committee members are trained and equipped to carry out their duties effectively.
